GERMANY ABANDONS GENERAL OFFENSIVE ON FRENCH SOIL

Decision to Devote More Attention to Eastern Conflict Is Seen By Experts—Italy Now Awaits Mere Pretext for Unleashing Dogs of War—Food Shipments Into Austria Stopped by Both Italy and Roumania—American Made Machine Guns Seized in Switzerland—Six-day Fight of Austrians Futile—Allies Begin New Drive in West.

By Associated Press. London, April 19.—Abandonment by the German General Staff of plans for a general offensive in France, is inferred in Rome from information received there. It is said this decision indicates that hope of penetration further into French territory has been put aside.

A dispatch from Geneva gives the impression that the Austrians and Germans have decided to concentrate their energies on the eastern campaign, by transferring Austrian heavy artillery, now before Verdun, to Poland, and sending back to Cracow, western Galicia, the Hungarian cavalry now on the western front.

which supplies are still reaching the Teutonic combatants. A case in point is the confiscation by the Swiss authorities, announced in Geneva today, of a carload of machine guns of American manufacture, which was on the way to Germany from Genoa. Shipments of iron, copper, sulphates and other products have been reaching Germany with a fair degree of regularity.

By Associated Press. London, April 19.—It is asserted today that Italy and Roumania have taken joint action in refusing to allow foodstuffs for the civilian population of Austria-Hungary to traverse their territory.

By Associated Press. Petrograd, April 19.—Austrian attacks on the heights of the Mezolaborz district of Hungary, where the Austrians for six days have been seriously attempting to regain positions recently taken by the Russians, appear to have definitely subsided.

By Associated Press. London, April 19.—The British army has begun another drive at the important section of the German line which holds conquered Belgium. A French report today says the British captured 200 yards of German trenches. Berlin, however, says the British were ejected from minor positions and that British attacks near Ypres broke down with heavy losses. The French are again on the offensive on the eastern end of the line and substantial progress in Alsace is announced in Paris. The French troops are said to have captured a number of positions, including a height which commands a part of the course of the Fecht river.

BARNES-ROOSEVELT LIBEL SUIT NOW IN FULL SWING

By Associated Press. Syracuse, N. Y., April 19.—Twelve men, satisfactory to counsel for William Barnes, in his suit for alleged libel against Theodore Roosevelt, asked $50,000, was selected during the opening session of the trial of the suit at the Supreme Court here today. Colonel Roosevelt's lawyers expected to begin their examination of the prospective jurors at the afternoon session of the court.

Syracuse, N. Y., April 19.—The prospect of witnessing the opening of the trial of the $50,000 libel suit, brought by William Barnes, against Theodore Roosevelt, drew a great throng to the court house here today, even the first of the special detail of 75 talesmen appeared. It has become known in Syracuse after the lawyers, talesmen and reporters had been seated, less than 50 spectators could be accommodated. Consequently those most anxious to secure seats appeared early. About 50 deputy sheriffs and policemen were on hand to preserve order.

Colonel Roosevelt arrived at the court house before his opponent, Mr. Barnes. He wore a large black felt hat, pulled down well over his eyes. The Colonel stopped in the corridor outside the court room and greeted several friends. Then he went into the court room and took a seat at the table reserved for his counsel.

When Mr. Barnes arrived in court he took a seat at his counsel's table. Colonel Roosevelt was sitting with his back toward his opponent. To all outward appearances neither was aware that the other was near. The examination of talesmen began at once.

VILLA MOVEMENT FAILS IN WEST

By Associated Press. Mazatlan, Mexico, April 19.—The Villa movement on the west coast of Mexico is said to be collapsing rapidly.

MAYOR AND ASSOCIATES ENTER PRISON

By Associated Press. Leavenworth, Kansas, April 19.—The special car carrying Mayor Don M. Roberts, and 14 others convicted in the Terre Haute election conspiracy cases, arrived at the United States penitentiary this morning.

The trip to prison began at Indianapolis yesterday afternoon. When the train approached the prison yard, the car containing the Terre Haute party was cut off and taken inside the penitentiary walls.

Soon a little procession of convicted men began to descend the car steps and shook hands with the guards who had made the trip. As they walked, two by two, towards the office, they talked among themselves in subdued tones. They appeared cheerful.

After required information had been given and their valuables deposited, each submitted to a physical examination. They then were photographed and their Bertillon measurements and finger prints were recorded.

After this process had been completed, Mayor Roberts and his assistants entered the dining room, where they partook of their first meal in prison.

The warden said it has not been determined what tasks would be assigned the men. Places probably will be found for them as clerks and orderlies.

BARON REUTER KILLS HIMSELF

By Associated Press. London, April 19.—Baron Herbert De Reuter, managing director of Reuters Telegraph Company, was found dead yesterday at his home in Surrey. A discharged revolver was found near his body, and the authorities declare there is little doubt that he committed suicide.

Baron De Reuters was prostrated by the death of his wife last Thursday. Her body is still in the home, awaiting interment. Their only son is in the army.

LEO FRANK LOSES ANOTHER STEP IN HARD FIGHT FOR LIFE

By Associated Press.

Washington, April 19.—Leo M. Frank, the Brooklyn man under death sentence for the murder of Mary Phagan, an Atlanta girl, lost another step in his fight for life in the Supreme Court of the United States today.

In a decision to which Justices Holmes and Hughes dissented, the Court dismissed Frank's appeal from the Federal Court of Georgia, which refused to release him on a writ of habeas corpus.

Frank contended that alleged "mob violence" at his trial, and the fact that he was absent from the court room when the jury returned its verdict, had removed him from the jurisdiction of the courts of Georgia. The majority opinion of the Supreme Court today rejected all those contentions and declared Frank had enjoyed all his legal rights in the Georgia courts.

Seemingly, no other avenue of escape from the death penalty is open to Frank through the courts. The state pardon officials might relieve him.

Justice Pitney, in the majority decision, stated that the obligation rested upon the Supreme Court to look through the form and into the very heart and substance of the matter; not only of the averment in Frank's petition, but in the trial proceedings in the state courts themselves.

"I am very much disappointed over the Supreme Court's decision, but I will keep up the fight," said Leo Frank, when informed that his habeas corpus case had gone against him.

By Associated Press. New York, April 19.—Frank Abarino and Carmine Carbone, anarchists who made and set a bomb in St. Patrick's cathedral March 2, when hundreds were worshipping within the edifice, were sentenced today to serve not less than 6 years nor more than 12, in Sing Sing prison.

AUSTRIANS FIRE ON ITALIAN TROOPS

Peking, April 19.—The report is credited in official circles here that Hung-Hutze bands from south Manchuria, led by Japanese, are now marauding on the Shantung peninsula in the vicinity of Tinghsan, with banners inscribed, "Vanguard of the Army Against Yuan Shi Kai."

The Chinese government lodged another protest with Tokyo regarding the reported movement of Japanese troops in Shantung, and also, it is understood, alleging that Japanese troops prevented Chinese troops from pursuing bands of brigands near Tsimo, in neutral territory, north of Tsingtau.

Chinese government reports are said to confirm the newspaper accounts of an alleged agreement between Dr. Sun Yat Sen, who rebelled against President Yuan, and Japanese agents for Japanese support with money, arms and men for another revolution.

RUSSIANS WORSTED

London, April 19.—The following official statement was issued in Vienna: "On the wooded mountains of the Carpathians an attack by the Russians in the region of Nagy-Polanzky Loeletoka was repulsed after sanguinary fighting, in which we took seven officers and 1,452 men prisoners. On all other fronts there were only artillery actions. It is reported from the southern theater of war that Serbian artillery fire from the region of Belgrade has been answered successfully several times."

EXPERT TALKS ON CLEANUP WORK

Says German Cities Provide Model For Americans.

STREET CLEANING SCIENCE.

No Refuse Should Be Placed on Sidewalk—The Sweeping Process Should Be Started When No Traffic Is on Street—Early Morning Best Time.

By FRANK KOESTER.

The lack of system and want of technical training on the part of many American officials in charge make street cleaning unnecessarily expensive, leave the streets in a bad condition and cause the cleaning to be carried out in a disagreeable, insanitary way.

In foreign cities engineers specialize on this subject. Street cleaning has been reduced to a science, and economy, efficiency and the comfort and convenience of the public are considered.

The purpose of street cleaning is to remove as quickly and as cheaply as possible all foreign matter in the streets and thus to conduce to the health of the public by minimizing the circulation of germ laden dust.

The cleaning of streets should be carried out in a systematic and thorough manner. The cleaners should proceed in crews with the necessary apparatus both to clean the streets and the sidewalks as well, if necessary, and the layout of the work should be such that no member of the crew needs to wait on the progress of the other, but all proceed simultaneously, and when they have passed through the street the work will be done. The method of piecemeal street cleaning, with the householder sweeping dirt into the street, the street cleaner sweeping it into piles and the piles being removed by wagons, with the occasional passing first on one side of the street and then on the other of some piece of street cleaning apparatus, results in a continual stirring up of dust to the great discomfort and inconvenience of all concerned, while the street never really gets cleaned.

The number of men in the cleaning crew depends on the kind of machinery used. As no machine is capable of reaching all parts of the street, a certain amount of manual sweeping is necessary, especially when the sidewalks are cleaned in conjunction with the machine sweeping, so that, as indicated, the whole width of the street will be cleaned at once.

Must Be Clear of Traffic.

In order that such cleaning may proceed with efficiency and dispatch, and consequently with economy, the streets must be practically clear of traffic, as the presence of vehicles, especially those standing at the curb, greatly delays the work of the crew.

As the operation of such a crew also handicaps traffic and as the public prefers to see the streets clean, rather than to see them being cleaned, it is essential to select a suitable hour for cleaning. German cities have conducted numerous tests for finding out the most favorable hour. The city of Dresden adopted the practice of cleaning the main streets in the early morning hours, beginning about 4 o'clock and finishing the business sections by 6 o'clock, some 20 to 30 per cent of the entire street area. The cleaning of the remainder of the streets proceeds immediately after the main streets are finished, and the whole city is cleaned by 9 a. m.

The Early Morning Plan.

The advantages of the system are that the cleaning can be carried out by daylight and is consequently better performed than when carried out under artificial light, that the workmen are more efficient as day workers than as night workers, and that during the early morning hours the traffic is at the minimum.

No refuse may be placed on the sidewalk, but must be kept on the householder's premises in such places as will not cause annoyance to the neighbors. As the street cleaning crews may be expected at a fixed time daily the householders are able to make their arrangements accordingly, and thus the whole proceeding is carried out in the most expeditious and convenient manner.

Most Urgent Duty.

Perhaps the most urgent of the duties of the street cleaners is the removal from the streets of the carcasses of dead animals, not only on account of the unsightliness of such objects, but also because, especially in summer, they are a menace to health. Singularly enough, in many American cities, including those constantly exploiting their civic improvement plans, there is a lack of co-operation between the police, to whose notice such matters naturally first fall, and the street cleaning departments, so that the carcasses remain often for days before being removed.

It would certainly seem a necessary preliminary to street planning to have the streets free of such impediments. Street cleaning machinery consists principally of three classes—sprinkling, sweeping and removing apparatus.

A TIMELY WARNING.

The arrival of hot weather always brings with it an increase in infant mortality.

The typhoid fly and other germ carriers breed and multiply in piles of waste matter and refuse of almost every kind.

CLEAN UP AND SAVE THE BABIES' LIVES.

These deadly insects just date on alighting on the babies' milk bottles and foods. They are responsible for thousands of deaths a year. Destroy their breeding places and you will be aiding in a great, grand cause.

When streets and sidewalks are cleaned by hand sweeping there should be provided receptacles of appropriate design and suitable capacity for the reception of the street sweepings awaiting removal.

A useful form of such receptacle would be one which could be removed without being emptied, another being left in its place for the next day's sweepings. The same method is equally applicable for small garbage and household refuse.

There are other receptacles for street refuse that may be sunk in pits. They are made of steel with a dumping bottom, and the removal cart is provided with means of lifting them out of the pit to the top of the cart, which is covered with a top having special openings so that the contents of the cans may be dumped into the cart without being scattered by the wind.

After being so dumped the cans are lowered again into place in their pits.

In order to avoid handling such pits are located in the sidewalk near the curb, and the street refuse is swept directly into them, small hinged flaps bridging the gutter. The pit is, of course, provided with a cover.

The removal of all town street sweepings and garbage refuse should be done in wagons invariably having covers in order to protect the passing public and the workmen from escaping particles. It is better, however, to have it removed in the original cans, leaving empty cans in place, as this is an absolute protection to all concerned and gets the wagons off the streets sooner.

THE TOWN BEAUTIFUL.

Movement to Distribute Flower Seeds
Should Spread.

In Nebraska several public spirited communities have adopted the practice of distributing flower seeds to children in connection with the clean-up and paintup propaganda.

The children are instructed in the planting and care of flowers and also in the simple methods of digging gardens.

The practice is known as "the town beautiful movement." Many a yard after being cleaned up becomes a spot of real beauty when a flower garden decorates it. Even a back yard can be made a pleasure to the eye in this way.

CLEAN UP AND KILL THE MOSQUITOES.

"Cleanup time is here, and so is mosquito time. Gird on your swatting armor and go forth.
One moment, however, before you go—the female is more deadly than the male."

"Among mosquitoes the members of the 'fair' sex are fierce bloodsuckers that inject an irritating poison into our skins, and they may accompany the dose of toxin with a few fever germs. The males lead a comparatively tame existence, subsisting on the juices of plants and fruits." So says a member of the University of Wisconsin biology department.

"The speckle winged anopheles,
the malarial mosquito," he continues, "hibernates during the winter in our attics, cellars and closets. The presence of many lakes, swamps and ponds often makes mosquitoes an intolerable pest."

"The female mosquito gorges herself with blood in order that the eggs may have abundant nourishment. She deposits her little egg raft on the surface of quiet water during the night, and it floats there until the larvae hatch. The larvae are the 'wig-glers' or 'wiggletails' which are seen in ponds and rainwater barrels the world over. Though mosquito larvae always develop in water, they must breathe air and frequently come to the surface. After a few days the larva sheds its skin and becomes a big headed pupa, which rests at the surface until it splits up the back to allow the adult mosquito to emerge."

"The best way to get rid of mosquitoes is to destroy their breeding places. This not only means draining swamps and filling in ponds, but gathering up tomato cans, putting netting over horse troughs and rainwater barrels and watching the eave troughs. If it is impossible to get rid of standing water near your premises, oil placed on ponds will kill the larvae. Kerosene or any light fuel oil will serve for this purpose. About one ounce of oil will cover fifteen square feet."

The nuisances continue unabated during this time and may result in infection of some kind. That is not wilful negligence. It is simply because it seems to be nobody's business to report those nuisances, which continue until the tenant complains to the real estate agent or it reaches a local department in some other roundabout way."

"Why could not a department of public safety use inspectors and police officers and have them report every occasion if they found that garbage was scattered over the street or was not properly covered, that a main was broken, a drainpipe stopped or that any such nuisance had occurred?"

"When excavations are made throughout a city a great deal of the dirt blows about and fills the air with dust. The children of the neighborhood, too play in the dirt and scatter it about. Why should not the excavated material be covered with a tarpaulin so that the dust would be minimized? Another preventable cause of the dust and dirt comes from the hay wagons which trail their loads through the streets, dropping dust and chaff along the way. Finally, there are the drop bottom carts of the contractors, which carry dirt and refuse from one place to another. Often one sees a trail of earth sifting from the improperly closed trap bottom of these wagons to be scattered and blown about the streets.

"All these and many more things go to make up the dust which especially in the summer makes a haze which the eye can discern. Smoke often causes part of this haze, particularly in damp weather, when it descends in clouds, but dust is largely responsible for it.

"The effect of these dust particles laden with all sorts of disease bearers depends simply on the resistance of the individual who breathes them in with the polluted air. They are responsible for many cases of conjunctivitis and, I think, are an important cause of catarrhal and other head, throat and pulmonary troubles."

GOOD IDEAS FOR CLEANUP CAMPAIGN.

Various localities where clean-up and paintup crusades are waged appoint special committees of women and girls to aid in the work.

Also many schools organize their pupils into bands of dirt annihilators. The young folks are found to be especially effective in this sort of activity. Most of them like to feel that they have become old enough and big enough to assist the grownups in doing the grownups' work.

CLEANUP POSTCARDS.

An Effective Novelty First Used In a St. Paul Crusade.

Cleanup postcards are a novelty introduced in St. Paul.

No less than 40,000 were mailed to persons a year ago, and this year probably double that number will be utilized. The cards, with appropriate illustrations and text or with text alone, prove very effective in getting volunteer cleaners into action.

The cost of printing them is very low. They can be either mailed or distributed by individual workers.

Wake Up and Paint Up

Don't overlook the fact that it is as important to paint up as it is to clean up while the renovating war is on hereabouts.

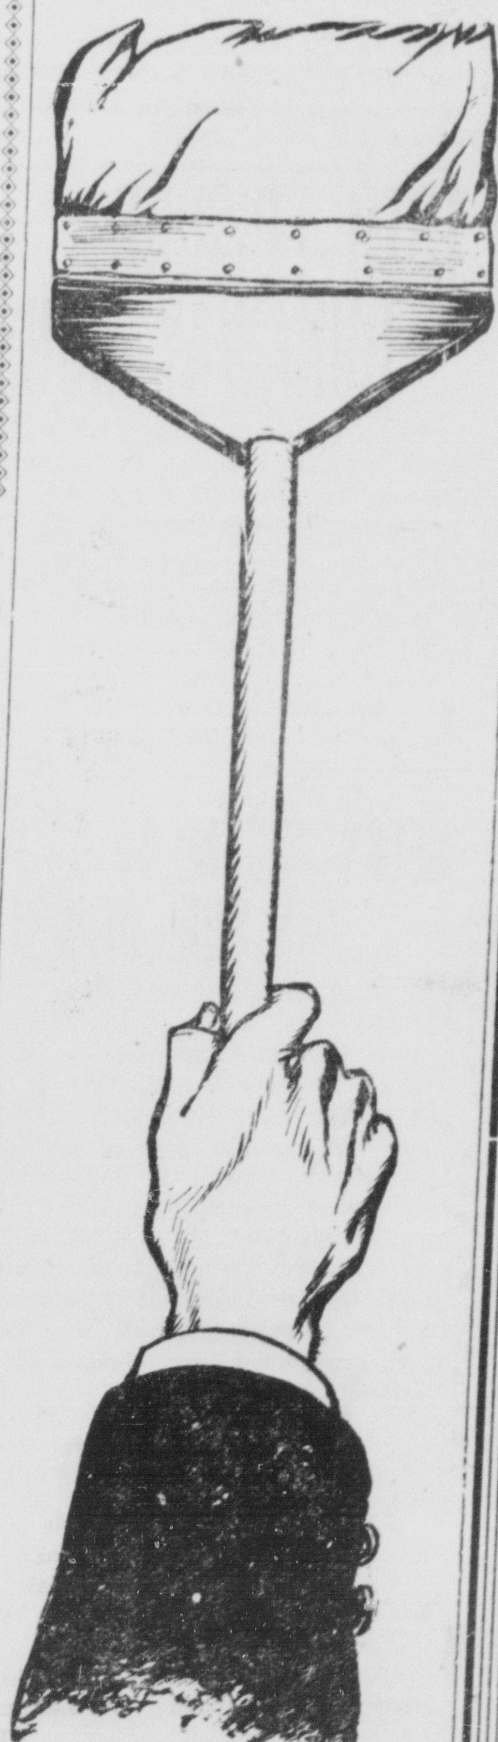

Paint is not only a cleanser and a beautifier, but it is a disinfectant as well. Also it preserves the life of buildings, fences, wagons, etc. Many a barn is leaky because Farmer John would not spend a few dollars and a few hours on the simple job of giving it the needed coats of paint from year to year.

Many a community has attracted new residents, new business and new reputation by having a bright, prosperous appearance. Well painted buildings and fences, cleanly kept streets and sidewalks and neatly trimmed grass plots do more to give the impression of prosperity than any other things we can suggest.

GET A MOVE ON, FOLKS.

And where you consider the use of paint to be a useless expenditure use whitewash. It is cheap and clean and not unpleasing to the eye. Cleanliness never is annoying.

CLEANLINESS HELPS THE BABY.

Don't throw things in the street. Baby plays there.

TOMORROW IS CLEAN-UP DAY IN WASHINGTON C. H.

GENERAL CRUSADE AGAINST RUBBISH AND FILTH WILL BE UNDERTAKEN BY CITIZENS AND OFFICIALS OF THE CITY FOR PURPOSE OF BRIGHTENING UP CITY AND PUTTING IT IN SANITARY CONDITION TO OFFSET PLAGUES OF SUMMER.

Tomorrow is Clean Up Day.

Since the launching of the clean-up movement in the larger cities of the United States a few years ago, and the subsequent popularity of the movement, which reached to all parts of the country, the people of Washington have come to recognize it as a necessary observance in their routine of activities, and in the several times that the day has been authorized here in past seasons, it has been steadily increasing in favor by reason of the results it has secured.

This year clean-up day has been planned on a little more elaborate scale. The mayor and the service director of the city will lead the movement with a thorough attention to the cleaning up of all city property. They earnestly urge and should have the support of the entire public body, and it is believed they will have.

One idea of clean-up day is to rid the city of such conditions as give rise to disease and promote the breed of mosquitos, flies and other dangerous, disease carrying pests. The great foe to these pests is cleanliness. Their habitations and breeding places are to be found only in unclean localities. That's the main reason for clean-up day. Another reason is that by a systematic cleaning up of the city it will be a more attractive place to live. No one likes to live in a dirty house or a dirty town.

The proper way to clean up is first to remove all rubbish, piles of dirt and decaying matter, brush, weeds, and similar accumulation from the back yards, alleys and barn lots, and have it hauled away; then complete the job by sprinkling a little lime or disinfectant of some sort on the spots where they have been, in low places about the premises where cesspools or moisture may gather and in places where dirty water is emptied. This precaution is an inexpensive one, and is sure death to malarial germs, at the same time discouraging the influx of mosquitos, flies and their winged allies.

This disinfecting idea could be carried out further and to a splendid advantage. If every person in Washington, or the majority of them, would occasionally empty a little disinfectant into their sinks or other such receptacles having an outlet to the drain pipes, it would not only keep the drainage routes about their own premises pure, but would unite where the sewers flow into the open creek and do more toward discouraging mosquitos and disease germs than would the constant application of oil. Disinfectant does not cost much and may be procured from any druggist, who will prescribe the right sort for the purpose intended.

This recommendation of the use of disinfectant comes direct from the health board, by whom its action is well known as perhaps the most powerful factor in existence in combating the evils of disease and filth.

Tomorrow will be a day also of painting, housecleaning and general brightening up.

Pages two and three of this issue is replete with useful hints for Clean-up Day.

REPRESENTATIVES FROM ALL OVER COUNTY ATTEND RALLY

A large crowd from all parts of the county attended the Anti-Saloon Rally at Grace church Sunday afternoon, and took deep interest in the messages brought by Mr. Charles Mayer, of Cincinnati, and District Superintendent Propst, also of Cincinnati.

Supt. Propst was the first speaker, who stated that the temperance advocates had reason to feel greatly encouraged over the outlook for a temperance victory at the polls next fall when the proposal for state-wide prohibition will be submitted to the voters.

Supt. Propst said that the people were thoroughly aroused to the condition of affairs, and did not intend to permit Cincinnati and one or two other large cities to dictate what should be done throughout the state in regard to saloons. He said that petition bearers were finding it a much easier matter to obtain signatures to the petitions now in circulation than it was to obtain signatures last year, and that it behooved every temperance advocate to begin now and work for success the coming fall.

Mr. Mayer, a millionaire real estate dealer and one of the most active members of the Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce, spoke for nearly one hour, giving his auditors a clear insight into the work ahead in the temperance fight. Mr. Mayer said: "You think Cincinnati is a pretty bad place, and I will admit that you have a perfect right to think so because it is unfortunate enough to be

WELL KNOWN RESIDENT ANSWERS SUMMONS

Mr. Daniel G. Morris, one of the esteemed older residents of this city, and belonging to one of Fayette county's large and well known families, answered the eternal summons Sunday evening at six o'clock, at his residence on Columbus avenue.

Since last November Mr. Morris has been in failing health and suffering from a serious heart trouble. In unusual health and activity he had rounded out four score years and would have been eighty-one on the 28th day of this month. It was his privilege, with his devoted wife, to celebrate their golden wedding anniversary three years ago, in all the happiness of a large family circle of children, brothers and sisters.

He was a member of the M. E. church of Bloomingburg.

Mr. Morris is survived by his wife, two daughters, Mrs. A. L. Shoults, of St. Louis, Mo.; Miss Estelle Morris, of this city, and one brother, Mr. Fred Morris, of London; three sisters, Mrs. Electa Selsor, Mrs. Sam VanPelt, Mrs. Albert Haines, and two brothers, Messrs M. W. Morris and W. W. Morris.

The funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock at the residence. The burial will be made in the family lot in the Bloomingburg cemetery.

The two daughters were with their father during his last hours, the son coming Monday.

RESIGNATION IS TENDERED SUNDAY

REV. BOWMAN HOSTETLER, PASTOR OF CHURCH OF CHRIST, RESIGNS PASTORATE AND WILL MOVE TO NEW FIELDS OF ACTIVITY NEXT FALL.

Coming as a surprise to the members of his charge was the resignation tendered Sunday by Rev. Bowman Hostetler, pastor of the Church of Christ of this city, the resignation to become effective September 1st of this year. Rev. Hostetler has not yet accepted a call elsewhere.

Rev. Hostetler came to this city from Greenwich, Ohio, over four years ago, and since that time has increased the membership of the Church of Christ some 60 per cent, his unceasing efforts being rewarded not only by an increase in membership, but by increased attendance and a more healthy financial condition of the church.

During his pastorate here Rev. Hostetler has made a host of friends who will deeply regret his departure for other fields of activity.

MAYOR COFFEY MARRIES PAIR

CHARLES MANN AND GRACE SIMMS ARE WEDDED, FOLLOWING CHARGES MADE BY GIRL—YOUNG MAN MADE INEFFECTUAL EFFORT TO EVADE OFFICERS.

An unusual wedding occurred in the mayor's chamber at noon Monday, as the result of an affidavit made by the young bride against her husband to be several days ago. The participants in the wedding were Charles Mann, 19, and Grace Simms, 16, the ceremony being performed by Mayor Coffey. Both are residents of this city.

Mann's arrest, following statutory charges made by the girl, took place Friday night on the Perrill farm near Hegler's Crossing, where he had been working and making a temporary home with his father. Chief of Police Moore and Officer Baughn made the arrest.

Mann, it seems, had been anticipating the arrival of the officers, and he was nowhere to be seen when they alighted from the automobile in which they made the trip. The officers first made a fruitless search of the house, and then went to a shed on the premises used for housing farm machinery. The ray of a flash light revealed Mann crouching behind a machine. He was brought to this city where he is now in jail.

At the time of the robbery Piatt's story was not thoroughly believed by the police of Circleville, but subsequent events indicated that the crime had taken place, and Nickells' arrest followed.

PIATT IDENTIFIES BOLD HOLD-UP MAN

Frank Piatt, horse dealer of Pancoastburg, this county, who claimed he was held up and robbed of $315 while in Circleville on the morning of March 27th, identified Marion Nickells, of Portsmouth, as one of the men who held him up.

The Circleville chief of police went to Portsmouth Saturday to escort Nickells back to that city to face the charge to be placed against him by Piatt.

At the time of the robbery Piatt's story was not thoroughly believed by the police of Circleville, but subsequent events indicated that the crime had taken place, and Nickells' arrest followed.

In Social Circles

Eight couples of the Junior set were delightfully entertained by Miss Carrie Willis, in honor of her guest, Mr. Russell Steele, of Chillicothe, Saturday evening.

Making candy was chief among the evening's diversions. Participating in the affair were Misses Mary Alice Culhan, Jane Paul, Jeanette Weaver, Doris McFadden, Jean Fitzgerald, Bessie Casey, Mary Ellen Tharp, Paul Craig, Mercer Hufford, Jack Worrell, Robert Craig, Donald Moore, Selsor Feener, Howard DeWitt.

The Browning Club officers, members of the executive committee and chairmen of the departments thoroughly enjoyed the hospitality of the club president, Mrs. P. J. Henness, Saturday afternoon.

It was Mrs. Henness' desire to resign from the office of President, owing to the fact that Dr. Henness' acceptance of a call to the Presbyterian church of Peoria, Ill. will necessitate removal from Washington.

The club is most unwilling to lose a president of such ability as Mrs. Henness and since she expects to remain here indefinitely while settling some business matters, refused to accept her resignation at the present time.

After spending a profitable hour in discussion of club work and programs Mrs. Henness served a dainty collation.

In compliment to Mrs. Ed Hunt, of Charleston, W. Va., Mrs. George Worrell charmingly entertained two tables of bridge, Saturday afternoon.

The additional guests were Mesdames Carl Mallow, Frank Michaels, Foster Lane, Elton Marine, Glenn Rodgers, Martin Hughey, Miss Emily Tanzey.

DELMORE KNEISLEY DIES IN COLORADO

The sad news of the death of Mr. Delmore Kneisley, son of Mrs. Fitch Kneisley, of Gregg street, near Denver, Col., was received in this city Monday morning.

Mr. Kneisley went to Colorado last fall hoping to cure tuberculosis by the change of climate. Only last summer the same dread disease claimed his wife and after her death their three children were placed in the O. S. & O. Home in Xenia, their father having been a Spanish-American war veteran.

Mr. James Kneisley, the violinist, is a brother.

It is expected that the body will be brought to this city for burial, definite arrangements being not yet completed.

MEMOIR.

Fannie Belle Hutchison was born April 10th, 1880, in Waterloo, Lawrence county, Ohio. She was married Sept. 2nd, 1901 to Henry E. Mossman of Waterloo, Ohio. To them were born one child, Charles E., aged nine years.

Mrs. Mossman united with the Methodist Episcopal church in early life and always sought to live a faithful and consistent Christian life.

For several years she had been in failing health. For this reason she was not permitted to attend the services, a sacrifice she felt very keenly.

However, her faith never wavered. During her long, brave fight for health she was true to her Master. When at first she realized the deadly nature of her malady it seemed that she could not reconcile herself to it. Like a true wife and mother she yearned to live for her loved ones. But as her strength declined, and life became a burden, she thought more of the heaven-world, and prepared for her departure. At length she gave up the struggle, and passed away peacefully in perfect faith and with a bright hope.

CARD OF THANKS.

I desire to express my thanks to relatives and friends, for kindness and sympathy shown me in the sickness and death of my wife. Also to Rev. Ross for his kindness.

Another Sign of Prosperity

In the announcement that the Pennsylvania railroad company will begin at once to spend in the purchase and construction of new rolling stock, the immense sum of twenty million dollars, those who have insisted that better times in business conditions were near at hand, find additional evidence that their prophecies were correct.

Twenty million dollars is a big sum of money to spend in equipment and means a tremendous addition to the transportation facilities of even the Pennsylvania road.

It means that thousands of men will be put to work at once earning big wages and that the tremendous sum of twenty million dollars will come out of hiding and pour into the channels of business and trade.

While the direct benefit which will flow from that one act alone will be enormous, the indirect benefits will be even greater.

The great Pennsylvania railroad company is regarded as a barometer of business conditions and when the Pennsylvania is moving forward in anticipation of returning business—actually spending money to obtain equipment to handle business—the effect of that exhibition of confidence coming from so reliable a source can scarcely be over-estimated.

There are a great number of railroad companies that need to rehabilitate their equipment more than the Pennsylvania and are proportionately as able financially to do it, but they wait for the Pennsylvania to take the lead.

Not only in railroad circles will the action of the Pennsylvania result as a stimulant.

Manufacturers will become active because the activity of the great common carrier will inspire the belief in them that there is really a market for their product, else the Pennsylvania would not prepare, on so gigantic a scale, to furnish that market with products.

There have been numerous signs of returning prosperity manifested in the last few weeks but in comparison with the Pennsylvania's activity they are of minor importance.

This is really the most important demonstration of confidence from a reliable source yet given.

The War Scare Rumors

If it was not so serious the constant agitation of those nervous alarmists, who would have the country rush pell mell to a war basis, would be amusing.

It is doubtful if this nation did recruit and arm a force of men, proportionately as great as that which Germany has maintained, the alarmists would be satisfied.

There is mingled with this agitation some selfishness—there are those who encourage the alarmists because they hope to reap a profit in some way or other by a war or by making preparations for war.

Those who either from fear or from selfish motive have been loudly proclaiming the necessity for armed intervention in Mexico resort to some of the most ridiculous scares. The latest sensation sprung in regard to Mexico was that one about the Japanese establishing a naval base in Lower California.

When that developed nothing tangible then the story that the wily Japs were establishing an aeroplane base in Mexico.

That latest sensation is doomed to result as the preceding rumor did, in failure to drive the government officials to a war basis, into conflict with Japan or to armed intervention in Mexico.

It is about time for the timid folks in this country to realize that we are not going to get into any war, in Europe or elsewhere and to turn a deaf ear to those people who keep them constantly stirred up for the purpose of changing public sentiment and the fixed peace policies of the government.

This nation will reap vastly more profit financially and be much richer in happiness by remaining at peace and the great majority of the American people know it and are undisturbed by the wild stories of the agitators.

Poetry For Today

THE CALL TO LIFE.

There's a broad highway with an open reach,
And it leads far out from the swales of care;
So it's off with the old,
And it's on with the new,
In the land of sky and the wide glad air.

Oh, it's up and away to the rolling hills,
It is up and away to the tumbling sea,
And it's off with the old,
And it's on with the new,
In the spreading shade of the old elm tree.

There's a friendly kiss in the tossing foam,
There are bells a-chime on the witching deep,
So it's up and away,
On the blue, blue bay,
In our race for life up its rocky steep.

There's a dream in the heart of the winery woods,
And never a thought of age is there
So it's off with the old,
And it's on with the new,
With a thousand years and a day to spare.

There is peace of love in the magic hour,
With the hay and the sun and the singing bird,
So it's off with the old,
And it's on with the new,
Where the trumpeting call to life is heard.

Oh, it's up and away where the mountains dwell,
By the broad highroad of the sky and air,
And it's off with the old,
And it's on with the new,
With the heart of a child where there's life to spare.

AGREEMENT SOUGHT ON LICENSE BILL

Columbus, April 19.—Chairman Deaon announced that a second attempt would be made tonight to have the house liquor traffic committee agree upon a license bill. A week ago the subcommittee, which was ready to make its report in favor of the Andrews bill for the election of county license commissioners at the August primaries, was halted. It is now said Governor Willis will not oppose the plan of the subcommittee to recommend the primary plan.

Speaker Conover and the Republican house leaders are said to be in agreement to push the Andrews bill to a vote in the house. Two arguments are made for it. By direct election of the officers who have the granting and refusal of saloon licenses and who have no other duties to perform, the wet and dry question is divorced from the election of any other official, state or county. To elect license commissioners at the primaries would bring out a heavy vote at the primaries. The comparatively small vote usually cast at the primaries has been used as an argument to show that the primary system is a failure.

The Andrews bill is to be amended to give the counties the larger part of the annual fee of $105 paid by each saloonkeeper. The fees are now paid to the state license board, and last year produced a surplus over operating expenses of about $509,990, which accrued to the state treasury.

Opposition has sprung up in the house to the provisions in the Wickline election code bill which reduce in all but two counties the memberships of the election board from four to two and reduce the number of precinct election officers in every precinct from six to four. While this would effect a large saving in the cost of elections, members are arguing it would be economy at the expense of efficiency. Efforts to pledge enough votes to reconsider and pass the Galazher coal bill, which was beaten in the house last Thursday, lacking five votes of a majority, appear not to be making much impression.

Senator Cass of Putnam county issued a statement in which he claimed that the passage of his bill would clear the way for lifting Ohio out of the mud by building a complete system of improved highways. "It will no longer be necessary," he said, "for public road builders to have a corps of judges and lawyers at their elbows to steer them through the maze of ambiguous sections and duplications in Ohio road laws if the Cass bill is passed." The bill provides for codification of these sections.

WOULD KEEP LITTLE BELGIUM

New York, April 19.—Dr. Bernhard Dernburg's statement of the terms Germany considers essential to peace has made a profound impression upon German-Americans, who are generally disposed to accept as authentic whatever the ex-minister of the empire puts forth. Herman Ridder was asked for an expression of opinion, first upon Dr. Dernburg's authority to suggest peace terms, and second, upon the terms named by the distinguished German. Mr. Ridder said:

"I believe that Dr. Dernburg very faithfully represents the views of the German government, and I would regard any statement by him as fully representing their views."
Mr. Ridder was asked for his view of Dr. Dernburg's statement that Germany must retain Belgium as an avenue to the sea. "I say that Dr. Dernburg is undoubtedly correct in his explanation of the Belgian situation," observed the editor, "as the Germans must have an outlet to the sea over Belgium by Antwerp. The United States must stand with Germany to secure, as one of the conditions of the peace agreement, that the open sea must be free to all, as explained in Dr. Dernburg's letter. Germany must have a larger market for its output because she produces more than she consumes. It goes without saying that Dr. Dernburg is right with regard to cables and transportation."

Dr. Dernburg has said that the ca-

Another Sign of Prosperity

In the announcement that the Pennsylvania railroad company will begin at once to spend in the purchase and construction of new rolling stock, the immense sum of twenty million dollars, those who have insisted that better times in business conditions were near at hand, find additional evidence that their prophecies were correct.

Twenty million dollars is a big sum of money to spend in equipment and means a tremendous addition to the transportation facilities of even the Pennsylvania road.

It means that thousands of men will be put to work at once earning big wages and that the tremendous sum of twenty million dollars will come out of hiding and pour into the channels of business and trade.

While the direct benefit which will flow from that one act alone will be enormous, the indirect benefits will be even greater.

The great Pennsylvania railroad company is regarded as a barometer of business conditions and when the Pennsylvania is moving forward in anticipation of returning business—actually spending money to obtain equipment to handle business—the effect of that exhibition of confidence coming from so reliable a source can scarcely be over-estimated.

There are a great number of railroad companies that need to rehabilitate their equipment more than the Pennsylvania and are proportionately as able financially to do it, but they wait for the Pennsylvania to take the lead.

Not only in railroad circles will the action of the Pennsylvania result as a stimulant.

Manufacturers will become active because the activity of the great common carrier will inspire the belief in them that there is really a market for their product, else the Pennsylvania would not prepare, on so gigantic a scale, to furnish that market with products.

There have been numerous signs of returning prosperity manifested in the last few weeks but in comparison with the Pennsylvania's activity they are of minor importance.

This is really the most important demonstration of confidence from a reliable source yet given.

The War Scare Rumors

If it was not so serious the constant agitation of those nervous alarmists, who would have the country rush pell mell to a war basis, would be amusing.

It is doubtful if this nation did recruit and arm a force of men, proportionately as great as that which Germany has maintained, the alarmists would be satisfied.

There is mingled with this agitation some selfishness—there are those who encourage the alarmists because they hope to reap a profit in some way or other by a war or by making preparations for war.

Those who either from fear or from selfish motive have been loudly proclaiming the necessity for armed intervention in Mexico resort to some of the most ridiculous scares. The latest sensation sprung in regard to Mexico was that one about the Japanese establishing a naval base in Lower California.

When that developed nothing tangible then the story that the wily Japs were establishing an aeroplane base in Mexico.

That latest sensation is doomed to result as the preceding rumor did, in failure to drive the government officials to a war basis, into conflict with Japan or to armed intervention in Mexico.

It is about time for the timid folks in this country to realize that we are not going to get into any war, in Europe or elsewhere and to turn a deaf ear to those people who keep them constantly stirred up for the purpose of changing public sentiment and the fixed peace policies of the government.

This nation will reap vastly more profit financially and be much richer in happiness by remaining at peace and the great majority of the American people know it and are undisturbed by the wild stories of the agitators.

Poetry For Today

THE CALL TO LIFE.

There's a broad highway with an open reach,
And it leads far out from the swales of care;
So it's off with the old,
And it's on with the new,
In the land of sky and the wide glad air.

Oh, it's up and away to the rolling hills,
It is up and away to the tumbling sea,
And it's off with the old,
And it's on with the new,
In the spreading shade of the old elm tree.

There's a friendly kiss in the tossing foam,
There are bells a-chime on the witching deep,
So it's up and away,
On the blue, blue bay,
In our race for life up its rocky steep.

There's a dream in the heart of the winery woods,
And never a thought of age is there
So it's off with the old,
And it's on with the new,
With a thousand years and a day to spare.

There is peace of love in the magic hour,
With the hay and the sun and the singing bird,
So it's off with the old,
And it's on with the new,
Where the trumpeting call to life is heard.

Oh, it's up and away where the mountains dwell,
By the broad highroad of the sky and air,
And it's off with the old,
And it's on with the new,
With the heart of a child where there's life to spare.

the Springfield Elites home with the very short end of an 8 to 0 score.

As promised by the official shark
the weather was warm and sunny and the game was a good one up until the seventh inning, when the balloon went up and carnage followed.

The first two innings opened without scoring. In the third Washington slipped one across.
From then until the seventh fast fielding and good twirling prevented further scoring, and gave the fans as good an exhibition as they could desire.

The seventh was the eventful frame, and the only time the visitors came close to getting around the route. Reno opened at the slab, relieving Linson. A wild throw to first by Reno and a fumble by Runnells allowed two of the Elites on bases, and a sacrifice advanced them to second and third. Reno then came up with his old form, and settling down struck out the next two men, retiring the side.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr.
Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle.

Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

When Washington came to bat in the seventh a massacre ensued.
Heavy and frequent hitting brought four men across the plate and the visitors went to pieces. The locals put three more across in the eighth,
which concluded the scoring.

The features of the game were the slugging of Noon. Noon got four clean hits in four times at the plate, two singles a two sacker and a three bagger. The acrobatic ability of the Elites' center fielder in tumbling under the middle garden canvas, was all that prevented the latter from being a homer.

The slabmen all were working good. Linson got 8 strikeouts in his six innings up and Reno 7 in the remaining three. Renner, of the visitors, twirled a good, steady game, although his strikeouts numbered but six.

Washington's entire fielding staff had but three errors during the game and worked like a big machine.

The Robinson circus opens at Kokomo, Indiana, April 26th, and Mr. Lester states that in addition to a vast amount of new equipment, quite a number of new and difficult acts have been obtained and the show is better than ever before.

PRISONER SETS FIRE TO BUILDING

Hays Taylor, confined in the county jail, Sunday, on a charge of intoxication, set fire to the mattress of a cell, but the smoke was soon discovered and the fire extinguished before it had gained much of a hold on the mattress.

Taylor also smashed a couple of buckets and a cuspidor before he quieted down and narrowly escaped a charge of malicious destruction of property.

The fire kindled by the man could not have communicated with any part of the building itself owing to the fact that the interior is of iron, concrete and stone.

FOUND LYING ON RAILROAD TRACKS

Lying squarely across a B. & O. railroad track near the Fayette Grain Company's elevator, Chief of Police Moore and Officer Baughn, Sunday morning found Hays Taylor, "dead to the world." He was brought to jail and later was assessed a fine of $5 and costs, on a charge of drunkenness, by Mayor Coffey.

Joe Howard, another offender, picked up by Officer Bell Sunday evening, was fined $5 and costs on the same charge.

DRYS PREPARE DEMONSTRATION

Washington, April 19.—One of the most picturesque developments in the fight of the anti-liquor people to secure national prohibition came to light here with the announcement of the strong probability that in one of the sessions of the next congress there will be inaugurated an "on to Washington" move by those who sympathize with the propaganda. In brief, the plan as it is tentatively outlined at this time is to have many thousands of men and women report on a certain day and surround the Capitol to give a demonstration of the widespread prohibition sentiment.

Such a demonstration, if carried out, will cost hundreds of thousands of dollars, as it is planned to bring many thousands of people to the capital. It will be known as "White Ribbon Day in Washington."

E. C. Dinwiddie, national legislative superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league, was asked for the opinion of the Washington prohibition leaders on the biggest single demonstration ever proposed for the interests which he represents. "There is no doubt in my mind," he said, "that a demonstration of monumental proportions could be arranged. Moreover, there is no doubt either in my mind or in the minds of senators and representatives, about the effect of such a move. The last time we made a public appeal to congress, the Anti-Saloon league called for a deputation of 1,000 men to march to the Capitol. This was all we needed or thought necessary. Nevertheless 2,000 men, coming from all sections of the country, gathered here and marched to the Capitol. That is merely an indication of the possibilities of such an undertaking. Of course nothing definite can be said about the proposition at this time. It is one which will have to be decided by the governing committees of the various organizations."

SAYS ENEMY IS NOW HEMMED IN

El Paso, Tex., April 19.—Having received fresh supplies of ammunition, General Villa has resumed his attack on the entrenched army at Celaya, according to a message from General Villa received here. The message follows:

"The attack against Obregon's trenches has just begun. It will be the last fight. Either we defeat Obregon or we die in the attempt. As we have him completely surrounded, his only alternative is to fight or be captured by my angry soldiers."

General Villa, other reports said, received three carloads of ammunition he had requisitioned from General Rodriguez, who had just eased the siege of Matamoros, and also obtained another supply from General Madero at Monterey. A carload of ammunition received here by express from New York was rushed south by special train and, it was announced, further supplies would follow. Because of the bitter personal feeling between Villa and Obregon it is likely Obregon's capture by Villa will result in the former's execution.

The Carranza agency here received from Vera Cruz a cablegram stating that Obregon was steadily advancing northward and that Villa had fled from the remnants of his army. It was presumed that General Felipe Angeles would assume command. The dispatch quoted General Carranza as expressing the belief that the backbone of the northern rebellion was broken.

AID FARMERS

Washington, April 19.—Beginning tomorrow a new weekly weather forecast designed especially to aid farmers in planning their farm operations and shippers of perishable products to handle their goods with reference to weekly conditions, will be inaugurated by the United States weather bureau, and it will be continued during the crop season. In order to have these weekly forecasts reach the farmers and shippers in small towns with the least possible delay, the bureau has arranged a system whereby the forecast will be taken Tuesday and reach the weekly newspapers, especially in the corn, wheat and cotton districts, by mail or wire on Wednesday.

MISHANDLING OF ASSETS ALLEGED

Columbus, April 19.—Alleging a mishandling of assets by George Walters, former state bank superintendent, and Attorney Charles S. Northrup of Toledo, the Mechanics' Savings bank of the latter city, through its attorneys, Garnhart & Bates, filed suit in the county courts against Messrs. Walters and Northrup for $37,000.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

LIBEL SUIT TRIAL OPENED

Syracuse, N. Y., April 19.—Upon his arrival here for the opening today of the libel suit of William Barnes, Republican state leader, against Colonel Roosevelt, William Ivins, chief counsel for Mr. Barnes, broke the silence he has maintained since the suit was brought and declared that in the suit "there is no question of politics or political consequence, but there is a question of justice, and justice only."

Mr. Ivins accused Mr. Roosevelt of being "sore," and likens the attack made by Mr. Roosevelt on Mr. Barnes to "the opportunity offered a highwayman by a dark street and a black-jack."

"Actuated by a peculiar intensity of malice," said Mr. Ivins, "Mr. Roosevelt deliberately placed himself above the law and for three years devoted many occasions to paint a picture of Mr. Barnes which is as cruelly false as it is hideous in its brutality and calumny."

Mr. Roosevelt charged Mr. Barnes with being in combination with Chief Murphy of Tammany Hall in degrading and corrupting state government. Colonel Roosevelt shook his head very positively when he was asked if he had any statement to make. He said that any statements regarding his side of the case would have to come from John M. Bowers, his chief counsel, and Mr. Bowers was not feeling talkative, Roosevelt was obviously in high spirits. You could have told a mile off that he was going into a fight. Physically, too, he appears to be in splendid condition.

The trial is being held before the supreme court in the Onondaga county courthouse. Selection of a jury from a list of seventy-five talesmen will be the first task of the court. Of these 41 are Republicans, 14 are Democrats, 11 are Progressives, three are Prohibitionists and six have not yet revealed what their politics are. In the list are nineteen farmers, five clerks, five painters, three carpenters, three manufacturers, two merchants, two builders, two insurance agents, two cashiers, one banker, one bee breeder and other similar representatives of professions or trades.

The duration of the trial depends largely upon the latitude permitted by Supreme Court Justice William S. Andrews as regards going into old political happenings. If he lets Colonel Roosevelt's lawyers dig back to 1896 it may take two months to wind up the case.

WASP IS SUNK

London, April 19.—The British submarine E-15, one of the latest type—ran ashore off Kephez point, in the Dardanelles. Seven of her crew were lost. The remaining twenty-four, including three officers, were rescued by the Turks and made prisoners. One of the men rescued, according to an official statement issued at Constantinople, is the former vice consul at Dardanelles.

News of the loss of the E-15, which was built last year and was one of his majesty's most improved undersea boats, was given out by the official press bureau. She was attempting a difficult reconnaissance of the mine field in Kephez bay when her nose ran into the mud. Apparently she was not entirely submerged at the time, for Turkish soldiers on shore, were attracted by the calls of distress and put out to the rescue of the crew. There is no explanation, however, of how seven men happened to lose their lives.

GERMANS AND ENGLISH CLASH

Berlin (Via London), April 19.—The following statement was issued by army headquarters: "In the western theater, the English, after having caused several explosions by means of mines, penetrated into our positions in the hills close to the northern bank of the canal, southeast of Ypres, but were repulsed again immediately by a counter attack except from three of the craters they occupied. The fighting continues. In the Vosges we took possession of an advanced French position situated on a ridge of hills southwest of Stossweir. In the eastern theater the situation remains unchanged."

TURKISH SUCCESS

London, April 19.—It is again stated that the German efforts to bring about an accord between Austria and Italy have failed, a report which, if confirmed, is likely to magnify in the eyes of the Italians Saturday's frontier incident. According to the latest reports the Austrians, who were passing over Italian territory, actually fired upon the Italian troops, who repulsed them, and in return penetrated into Austrian territory.

Riddle, father of the accused. Mr. Riddle detailed a series of tragic deaths which he believed unhinged his son's mind.

Three Charged With Murder.
Cleveland, April 19.—Three men have been arrested and have confessed to the murder of Dominic Mazzola, reputed bad man of the Italian colony, whose hacked body was found under a bridge Saturday. One man, Joseph Randazzo, twenty-one, was booked on a murder charge. This charge will be placed against his brother Peter and Domono Federico, according to police.

Five Members of Family Injured.
Coshocton, O., April 19.—Five members of one family were injured in an automobile accident, six miles east of this city. John W. Goodin, forty-five, and Fremont Goodin, ten, a son, are believed to be fatally hurt. Mrs. Goodin and daughters Zelpa and Gayle were badly injured. The automobile, driven by Henry Klinger, skidded into a twelve foot ditch from the roadway and turned turtle.

Killed Father.
Youngstown, O., April 19.—John Morrow, a mill employe, was shot and killed by his son Robert, twenty. According to the story told the police, the young man acted to save his mother's life. Young Morrow says his father had beaten his mother and then remarked that he "might as well finish up the job." A target pistol was used, the bullet going through the elder man's heart.

LIBEL SUIT TRIAL OPENED

Syracuse, N. Y., April 19.—Upon his arrival here for the opening today of the libel suit of William Barnes, Republican state leader, against Colonel Roosevelt, William Ivins, chief counsel for Mr. Barnes, broke the silence he has maintained since the suit was brought and declared that in the suit "there is no question of politics or political consequence, but there is a question of justice, and justice only."

Mr. Ivins accused Mr. Roosevelt of being "sore," and likens the attack made by Mr. Roosevelt on Mr. Barnes to "the opportunity offered a highwayman by a dark street and a black-jack."

"Actuated by a peculiar intensity of malice," said Mr. Ivins, "Mr. Roosevelt deliberately placed himself above the law and for three years devoted many occasions to paint a picture of Mr. Barnes which is as cruelly false as it is hideous in its brutality and calumny."

Mr. Roosevelt charged Mr. Barnes with being in combination with Chief Murphy of Tammany Hall in degrading and corrupting state government. Colonel Roosevelt shook his head very positively when he was asked if he had any statement to make. He said that any statements regarding his side of the case would have to come from John M. Bowers, his chief counsel, and Mr. Bowers was not feeling talkative. Roosevelt was obviously in high spirits. You could have told a mile off that he was going into a fight. Physically, too, he appears to be in splendid condition.

The trial is being held before the supreme court in the Onondaga county courthouse. Selection of a jury from a list of seventy-five talesmen will be the first task of the court. Of these 41 are Republicans, 14 are Democrats, 11 are Progressives, three are Prohibitionists and six have not yet revealed what their politics are. In the list are nineteen farmers, five clerks, five painters, three carpenters, three manufacturers, two merchants, two builders, two insurance agents, two cashiers, one banker, one bee breeder and other single representatives of professions or trades.

The duration of the trial depends largely upon the latitude permitted by Supreme Court Justice William S. Andrews as regards going into old political happenings. If he lets Colonel Roosevelt's lawyers dig back to 1896 it may take two months to wind up the case.

WASP IS SUNK

London, April 19.—The British submarine E-15, one of the latest type—ran ashore off Kephez point, in the Dardanelles. Seven of her crew were lost. The remaining twenty-four, including three officers, were rescued by the Turks and made prisoners. One of the men rescued, according to an official statement issued at Constantinople, is the former vice consul at Dardanelles.

News of the loss of the E-15, which was built last year and was one of his majesty's most improved undersea boats, was given out by the official press bureau. She was attempting a difficult reconnaissance of the mine field in Kephez bay when her nose ran into the mud. Apparently she was not entirely submerged at the time, for Turkish soldiers on shore were attracted by the calls of distress and put out to the rescue of the crew. There is no explanation, however, of how seven men happened to lose their lives.

GERMANS AND ENGLISH CLASH

Berlin (Via London), April 19.—The following statement was issued by army headquarters: "In the western theater, the English, after having caused several explosions by means of mines, penetrated into our positions in the hills close to the northern bank of the canal, southeast of Ypres, but were repulsed again immediately by a counter attack except from three of the craters they occupied. The fighting continues. In the Vosges we took possession of an advanced French position situated on a ridge of hills southwest of Stossweil. In the eastern theater the situation remains unchanged."

TURKISH SUCCESS

London, April 19.—It is again stated that the German efforts to bring about an accord between Austria and Italy have failed, a report which, if confirmed, is likely to magnify in the eyes of the Italians Saturday's frontier incident. According to the latest reports the Austrians, who were passing over Italian territory, actually fired upon the Italian troops, who repulsed them, and in return penetrated into Austrian territory.
